

HELPING YOU STAY CONNECTED...

Schmoozefest

Seattle's nonprofit networking event. Once a month, nonprofit people gather for informal conversation, a brief talk by someone who knows the local scene, and a chance to learn about an upcoming nonprofit project.

NEXT: November 19

Deborah Swets of CityClub and
The Urban Rest Stop facility for homeless people

BrownBag Seminar

Ninety-minute introductions to key topics in nonprofit management and leadership. Most useful for people who don't have these responsibilities today but would like to get there someday.

NEXT: November 20

Human Resources with Bobbi Stevens

Civil Society Conversation

Join one of Seattle's most interesting political or nonprofit leaders for an intense but informal conversation about what makes community work.

NEXT: November 18

Brewster Denny

Nonprofit Leadership Conference

An annual gathering of board members, staffers, volunteers and consultants who work with and care about the nonprofits of our region.

NEXT: April 1, 2004

With Jan Masaoka at the Meydenbauer Center

NonprofitNetworking

All these and other events are announced on this free email distribution list for the local nonprofit community. Learn what's going on. Post your own notices and queries.

SIGN UP:

www.tess.org/pages/nonprofitnetworking.html

Observing Nonprofits

The Society's newsletter includes commentaries, responses to professional queries, news about nonprofit organizations and The Evergreen State Society. It is distributed through NonprofitNetworking and available on the web:

PAST ISSUES:

www.tess.org/pages/ObservingNonprofits.html

On the World Wide Web

The Evergreen State Society's website offers details of our events, links and resources for nonprofit organizations in Washington state.

VISIT: www.tess.org

The Evergreen State Society also maintains the Internet Nonprofit Center, with hundreds of brief articles answering questions about every sort of issue that nonprofits face.

VISIT: www.nonprofits.org

Membership

The Evergreen State Society is a membership group. Join Today! Members support the work and enjoy discounts on programs and activities.

SIGN UP: www.tess.org/pages/join.html

